

NEW JERSEY ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

FIELD HOCKEY PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

WEEK ENDING 11/13/11

OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

BRITTANY CARROLL • Montclair State University
Sophomore • Forward • Kingston, NY/Rondout Valley

Carroll earns the final NJAC Offensive Player of the Week selection after producing five points in a pair of NCAA Tournament contests for the Red Hawks. In the first NCAA game of her collegiate career, she tallied four points, including the game-winning goal during MSU's 3-2 double-overtime NCAA first round win over Rhodes. Three days later, she wrapped up her sophomore season by garnering an assist during the Red Hawks' 4-2 NCAA second round road defeat at Salisbury. A first-team all-conference selection, Carroll currently ranks second in the NJAC in total points (46).

DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

SHANNON SYCIARZ • The College of New Jersey
Senior • Goaltender • Garwood, NJ/Arthur L. Johnson

Syciarz earns the final NJAC Defensive Player of the Week selection, her second of the season, after producing pair of shutouts in NCAA Tournament play for the NJAC Champion Lions. She opened the week by collecting six saves in the a 1-0 NCAA second round win over William Smith. One day later, she secured nine saves in TCNJ's 3-0 NCAA third round victory over Lynchburg. With the win, the Lions earned a trip to the NCAA National Semifinals where they will face Ursinus in Dudley, MA. The two-time NJAC Goaltender of the Year, Syciarz currently leads the NJAC in both goals against average (0.69) and save percentage (.857).

ROOKIE OF THE WEEK

LAUREN PIGOTT • The College of New Jersey
Freshman • Back • Jobstown, NJ/Northern Burlington

Pigott earns the final NJAC Rookie of the Week selection after playing a key role in a pair of NCAA Tournament victories for the NJAC Champion Lions. In the first NCAA game of her collegiate career, she produced two defensive saves in TCNJ's 1-0 NCAA second round win over William Smith. One day later, she added another defensive save to help the Lions secure a 3-0 NCAA second round win over Lynchburg. With the victory, TCNJ earned a trip to Dudley, MA where they will face Ursinus in the NCAA National Semifinals. Pigott is part of a Lions' defense that currently leads the NJAC in team goals against average (0.67).