

NEW JERSEY ATHLETIC CONFERENCE
WOMEN'S CROSS COUNTRY RUNNERS OF THE WEEK

WEEK ENDING 11/15/09

RUNNER OF THE WEEK

JENA PEACOCK • Rowan University
Sophomore • Williamstown, NJ/Our Lady of Mercy

Peacock earns NJAC Women's Cross Country Runner of the Week honors for the sixth time this season after traveling to Morris, NY to compete at the NCAA Atlantic Regional hosted by SUNY Geneseo. She placed second in a field of 239 total competitors in the 6K race with a regional runner-up time of 21:38. Peacock, who's performance earned her an individual spot in the NCAA Division III National Championship on November 21 in Berea, OH, helped propel the Profs to a 10th place finish in the 33-team NCAA Atlantic Regional.

ROOKIE OF THE WEEK

JENN RAWLS • Rowan University
Freshman • Runnemede, NJ/Highland Regional

Rawls earns NJAC Women's Cross Country Rookie of the Week honors for the seventh time this season after traveling to Morris, NY to compete at the NCAA Atlantic Regional hosted by SUNY Geneseo. She placed 22nd overall in a field of 239 total competitors in the 6K race with a time of 22:56. The performance by Rawls help propel Rowan to a 10th place finish in the 33-team NCAA Atlantic Regional.